

6TH GRADE SUB PLANS

language arts only

PRINT & DIGITAL:

- Compiled from our Best-Selling Ready-To-Go Sub Plans
- Perfect as sub plans or extra language arts practice
- All the graphic organizers, activities, or worksheets are included.

6TH GRADE SUB PLANS

LANGUAGE ARTS ONLY:

- Types of Pronouns
- Reflexive and intensive Pronouns
- Personification
- Context Clues
- Restrictive and Non-Restrictive Elements
- Opinion, Narrative, Informative, Letter, & Poetry Writing

Name _____

Give It Some Personality

Write a description about each item below.

2.  _____

4.  _____

7.  _____

8. _____

My Person

Write about your day so far, from when you woke up about how you think the rest of your day will go as you can! Make sure to include _____

Name _____

Reflexive or Intensive?

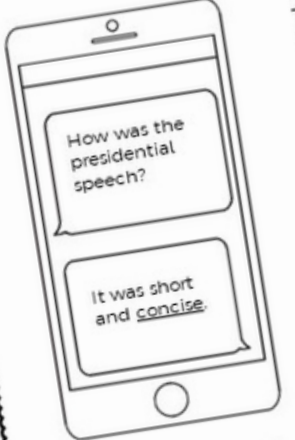

Identify the pronoun in the sentence. Is it reflexive or intensive?

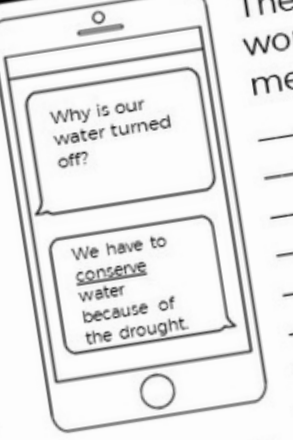

1. I myself like to eat popcorn.
2. He saw himself in the mirror.
3. The president himself gave the speech.
4. We treated ourselves to a special dinner.
5. Gina talked to herself.
6. We ourselves made our own sandwiches.
7. The dog scratched himself.
8. Give yourselves a pat on the back.
9. You yourself need to do your homework.
10. Kevin wondered if only he could solve the problem.
11. The cat licked itself.
12. They themselves are responsible for the mess.
13. Rachel herself couldn't believe it.
14. The actress herself wrote her own script.
15. You should let yourself inside.

Name _____

It's in the TEXT! #1

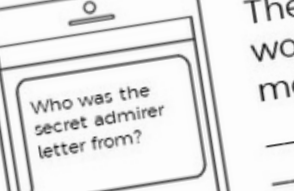

The underlined word probably means:

 How was the presidential speech?
It was short and concise.

 Why is our water turned off?
We have to conserve water because of the drought.

 We made a makeshift shelter out of sticks.
That's one way to go camping!

 Did you hear the verdict in the court case?
Yes, he was not guilty!

 Who was the secret admirer letter from?

6TH GRADE LANGUAGE ARTS SUB PLANS

"THIS PRODUCT MADE MY LIFE
SO MUCH EASIER! SUB
PLANNING IS A BREEZE WITH THIS BUNDLE AND DON'T REQUIRE A LOT OF
DIRECTIONS FOR THE SUB.
LOVE IT!"

-Caitlin S.